9.10 INSPIRATIONAL KEYNOTE ADDRESS: LEAVING A LEGACY OF NATIONAL WELLBEING AND A FLOURISHING ECONOMY DESPITE CATASTROPHIC ODDS

Rt Hon Sir John Key GNZM AC, former Prime Minister of New Zealand

Sir John Key led the country through the aftermath of the global financial crisis and a series of devastating earthquakes in New Zealand's second-biggest city. When he retired from office, New Zealand had one of the highest growth rates and best fiscal positions of any advanced economy. Wellbeing has always been a priority for Sir

John, and whilst Minister for Tourism, he instigated the great New Zealand Cycle Trail, showcasing the best that NZ has to offer local and international tourists. Since retiring from politics, Sir John has been an ambassador for the International Sports Promotion Society. Here, Sir John will speak candidly on:

- Leading through disaster – recommendations on how business leaders can best communicate, motivate and provide hope through a crisis, and Sir John's experience of leading the country's recovery following the devastating Christchurch Earthquake
- Getting New Zealand's economy back on track – what leadership initiatives drove the turnaround and the statistics on current national wellbeing vs during economic downturn
- How leaders and teams can effectively implement organisational wellbeing and foster strong, positive-minded and resilient employees
- Implementing great wellbeing ideas – building the taskforce, setting budgets and timelines, measuring ROI, hurdles faced and how they were overcome

10.00 THE WEALTHY BODY IN BUSINESS AND ITS ESSENTIAL ROLE IN EMPLOYEE WELLBEING AND BUSINESS PROFITABILITY

Tim Bean, International Health Expert and formidable Thought-Leader on Optimal Wellness

"Anyone can boost energy, engagement and performance by being in better shape. People who are in better shape are less stressed and perform better for longer – and so do their companies". Tim Bean's message sounds simple, but how practically can you rally your workforce into action and encourage them to lift their game given already high levels of pressure and expectation? Hear his inspirational advice and key management tools and tactics, plus examples of what businesses are doing internationally:

- What does optimal business wellbeing look like? How actually from a practical sense can you embed wellbeing?
- Getting your organisation in shape – practical, implementable strategies to help you and your teams to get stronger, happier, healthier, energised, more agile, engaged and focused
- Best-practice ways to support those in your organisation who struggle to balance high pressure, high-performance careers with a healthy,

happy home life and personal lifestyle

- Overcoming resistance to health and wellbeing strategies
- Recommendations for businesses on how much of the budget should be attributed to health and wellbeing strategies
- How to align wellbeing initiatives to a model and how to measure employee wellbeing

MASTERING STRESS AND FATIGUE MANAGEMENT: BOOSTING WELLBEING, PERFORMANCE AND PRODUCTIVITY

DR ADRIAN MEDHURST

ABOUT YOUR FACILITATOR, DR ADRIAN MEDHURST

Dr Adrian Medhurst is a psychologist, author, and co-founder of the work-life wellbeing tech business - Benny Button. He is on a mission to optimise performance and wellbeing for people and organisations.

Adrian firmly believes that when we mindfully live at the intersection of our optimal level of performance and wellbeing, we are on the path to discovering new peaks of our potential.

"We need wellbeing to perform at our best - no exceptions. This means wellbeing AND performance deserve our mindful attention and effort - no exceptions."

8.30 Registration and Welcome Coffee

9.00 SESSION ONE: THE BALANCING ACT

- The energy demands of modern work and life
- The impact of stress and importance of resilience fitness. How psychological, physical and social fitness help us master stress and fatigue
- How busy, hyperconnected cultures lead people to miss opportunities for rest and recovery - and what leaders need to be done about it
- The leader's role in encouraging and supporting 'Stress Mastery'
- Leading life on the see-saw: How balancing effort with ease is the key to sustaining wellbeing and performance.
- Rest and Relaxation - Getting good rest and relaxation, creating healthy sleep habits, and managing staff fatigue
- Physical Practice: Movement practice for energising mind and body

10.30 Morning Coffee Break

10.50 SESSION TWO: THE PARADOX OF PRESSURE

- How pressure is both a driver and drainer of our effort and energy
- Mastery - Outline the framework for performance and wellbeing resilience
- Mindset - Evidence-based strategies for developing growth-mindset and resilience for periods of change, challenge, pressure and uncertainty
- Meaning - How to create meaningful progress by cutting through biases and default patterns of thinking for more creative, adaptive and productive action
- Social Practice: Mindful meals and relationships

12.30 Lunch

Masterclasses will be conducted using a combination of presentation material and group exercises to maximise your learning potential. Please note that the masterclass content will be tailored to participants' individual needs so the length of each session may vary. Refreshments will be provided, including morning and afternoon teas and lunch.

13.30 SESSION THREE: STRESS MASTERY

- Mindfulness - the scientific benefits of mindfulness practices for 'stress mastery', resilience, rest and recovery
- Mindfulness - practical, science-based techniques for bringing more mindfulness into our lives and workplace cultures
- Mindful Leadership - key principles for leaders that establish more mindful teams and organisational cultures.
- Psychological Practice: Mindfulness practices for work and life (thorough debriefing and practical suggestions for establishing routines)

15.00 Afternoon Tea Break

15.20 SESSION FOUR: PRACTICE MAKES PROGRESS

- The 'Knowing Better but not Being Better' trap: Don't fall into the trap that this new knowledge will be sufficient for change, it won't. Einstein was right that "Nothing happens until something moves" - and we won't make progress without practice. We will explore how to move beyond cognition to intention and action
- The 'Do as I say, not as I do' leadership trap: Building Leadership commitment. When leaders are committed to stress mastery and energy management, not only do they benefit greatly, their role modelling is a powerful ingredient for team and cultural change.
- Creating a Practical Plan - because Practice Makes Progress. Integrating what we have learned, experienced and practiced into our lives now, and over time. Setting our intention, planning our practice, establishing a routine, evolving through progress
- Mind-Body Practice: Balancing energy and ease to close the masterclass.

MAXIMISING YOUR WELLNESS INVESTMENT: HOW TO CREATE A STRATEGY THAT BOTH YOUR EMPLOYEES AND YOUR FINANCE MANAGER WILL LOVE

KATRINA WALTON

ABOUT YOUR FACILITATOR, KATRINA WALTON

Katrina Walton is a veritable thought leader in the wellness industry, and has travelled all over the world sharing her invaluable knowledge and experience around implementing and sustaining a results-orientated wellbeing strategy.

With her perfect blend of theory and practice, together with her broad, structured approach to workplace wellbeing, you'll come away armed with a plethora of tools, knowledge and strategies to implement straight away within your organisation to help you create a cost-effective, and positive health-driving wellness strategy.

No matter what your budget, cost-effective wellness delivery is critical to business success and sustainability.

You can create an award-winning wellness strategy, regardless of how large or small the budget, either by expanding on your existing strategy or implementing a new one. Arm yourself with the invaluable tips, resources and strategies you need to be able to deliver a thriving wellness strategy that really engages your staff and helps them to thrive, mentally and physically. Learn how to get results from workplace wellness and achieve your business goals. In fact, research shows that financial performance increases more than 2.5 times when health and wellness is encouraged:

This not-to-be-missed one-day masterclass is designed to appeal to all organisations, no matter how large or small, whose primary objective is to really drive great health and wellbeing amongst its staff whilst concurrently meeting or exceeding wellness budget.

8.30 Registration and Welcome Coffee

9.00 SESSION 1: CREATING AND EVOLVING A WELLNESS STRATEGY THAT WORKS

Many organisations offer one-off health checks, chair massages, occasional yoga classes and so on. While the intentions are good, the organisation probably won't see any real or lasting impact to their bottom line.

In this session, you'll find out what you need to consider when planning or revamping your wellness strategy, whether your organisation is large, medium or small. Katrina will outline the need to think strategically about health and wellness in the workplace so that it can be integrated into the very DNA of your organisation to ensure the best possible outcomes for:

- Your organisation's bottom line
- Wellness outcomes for your employees
- A strategy that will stand the test of time
- Walk away with a 6 step framework for creating a workplace wellness strategy that works

SESSION 2: THE FINANCIAL SIDE OF WELLBEING

While it would be wonderful to have an endless bucket of money to spend on a workplace wellness strategy, the budget is dependent on several factors that can fluctuate wildly over time. This session will provide you with the tools and know-how to make your wellness dollar go further.

- How to create a targeted and cost-effective wellness strategy
- The key implications for large, medium and small organisations looking to create a wellness strategy. What are the challenges for each?
- Our top ten tips for stretching your wellness dollar further
- How to effectively measure and monitor the human and financial success of your wellness program – what is your wellness ROI?

SESSION 3: ENGAGING YOUR STAFF

To derive the benefits from wellness programs, staff must embrace and participate in them.

Consider these questions: Are your programs poorly attended? Are the same 'healthy' employees turning up each time? Is there an element of cynicism or indifference toward the programs? Have you lost touch with what your employees really want? In this session, Katrina will outline practical strategies for addressing the above hurdles to a successful wellness strategy, and for engaging senior management, key stakeholders and employees in your wellness efforts

- How to build a transformational wellness culture
- How to leverage leaders as change agents
- How to engage and inspire your multi-generational, multi-cultural workforce to participate in your organisational wellbeing program – find out the key strategies
- Strategies for overcoming cynicism or indifference towards your program
