13.15 NUTRITION FOCUS

Nadia Lim, Celebrity Chef, MasterChef Winner, Nutritionist and Author

Nadia Lim brings fresh insight into nutrition. A co-founder of the 'My Food Bag' business, which has revolutionised boosting nutrition for the time-poor, Nadia brings her holistic insight and extensive knowledge around nutrition, health and wellbeing. In this presentation, she will focus on what businesses need to do to foster essential, good nutrition and lifestyle habits for a healthy, happy and productive workforce:

- The current killer – sedentary work – and how to fight the effects through good nutrition
- Effectively enhancing the power of nutritious food to boost performance
- Essential nutrition and wellbeing habits for de-stressing and fostering great sleep
- You are what you absorb – more information on essential nutrients and how to boost them
- Foods to foster happiness and boost immunity
- Innovative ways in which to engage your teams in healthy-eating habits and promote self-care
- Wellness strategies that work at work, and creating the right environment for them

14.00 THE WEALTHY BODY IN BUSINESS AND ITS ESSENTIAL ROLE IN EMPLOYEE WELLBEING AND BUSINESS PROFITABILITY

Tim Bean, International Health Expert and formidable Thought-Leader on Optimal Wellness

"Anyone can boost energy, engagement and performance by being in better shape. People who are in better shape are less stressed and perform better for longer – and so do their companies".

Tim Bean's message sounds simple, but how practically can you rally your workforce into action and encourage them to lift their game given already high levels of pressure and expectation? Hear his inspirational advice and key management tools and tactics, plus examples of what businesses are doing internationally:

- What does optimal business wellbeing look like? How actually from a practical sense can you embed wellbeing?
- Getting your organisation in shape – practical, implementable strategies to help you and your teams to get stronger, happier, healthier, energised, more agile, engaged and focused
- Best-practice ways to support those in your organisation who struggle to balance high pressure, high-performance careers with a healthy, happy home life and personal lifestyle
- Overcoming resistance to health and wellbeing strategies
- Recommendations for businesses on how much of the budget should be attributed to health and wellbeing strategies
- How to align wellbeing initiatives to a model and how to measure employee wellbeing

Anna was the first New Zealander to be awarded an Asia- Pacific Conscious Business Leadership award.

15.55 LEAVING A LEGACY OF NATIONAL WELLBEING AND A FLOURISHING ECONOMY DESPITE CATASTROPHIC ODDS

Rt Hon Sir John Key GNZM AC, former Prime Minister of New Zealand

Sir John Key led the country through the aftermath of the global financial crisis and a series of devastating earthquakes in New Zealand's second-biggest city. When he retired from office, New Zealand had one of the highest growth rates and best fiscal positions of any advanced economy.

Wellbeing has always been a priority for Sir John, and whilst Minister for Tourism, he instigated the great New Zealand Cycle Trail, showcasing the best that NZ has to offer local and international tourists.

Since retiring from politics, Sir John has been an ambassador for the International Sports Promotion Society. Here, Sir John will speak candidly on:

- Leading through disaster – recommendations on how business leaders can best communicate, motivate and provide hope through a crisis, and Sir John's experience of leading the country's recovery following the devastating Christchurch Earthquake
- Getting New Zealand's economy back on track – what leadership initiatives drove the turnaround and the statistics on current national wellbeing vs during economic downturn
- How leaders and teams can effectively implement organisational wellbeing and foster strong, positive-minded and resilient employees
- Implementing great wellbeing ideas – how Sir John instigated and implemented the New Zealand Cycle Trail, building the taskforce, setting budgets and timelines, measuring ROI, the hurdles faced and how they were overcome

MASTERING STRESS AND FATIGUE MANAGEMENT: BOOSTING WELLBEING, PERFORMANCE AND PRODUCTIVITY

ABOUT YOUR FACILITATOR, DR ADRIAN MEDHURST

Dr Adrian Medhurst is a psychologist, author, and co-founder of the work-life wellbeing tech business - Benny Button. He is on a mission to optimise performance and wellbeing for people and organisations.

Adrian firmly believes that when we mindfully live at the intersection of our optimal level of performance and wellbeing, we are on the path to discovering new peaks of our potential.

"We need wellbeing to perform at our best - no exceptions. This means wellbeing AND performance deserve our mindful attention and effort - no exceptions."

8.30 Registration and Welcome Coffee

9.00 SESSION ONE: THE BALANCING ACT

- The energy demands of modern work and life
- The impact of stress and importance of resilience fitness. How psychological, physical and social fitness help us master stress and fatigue
- How busy, hyperconnected cultures lead people to miss opportunities for rest and recovery - and what leaders need to be done about it
- The leader's role in encouraging and supporting 'Stress Mastery'
- Leading life on the see-saw: How balancing effort with ease is the key to sustaining wellbeing and performance.
- Rest and Relaxation - Getting good rest and relaxation, creating healthy sleep habits, and managing staff fatigue
- Physical Practice: Movement practice for energising mind and body

10.30 Morning Coffee Break

10.50 SESSION TWO: THE PARADOX OF PRESSURE

- How pressure is both a driver and drainer of our effort and energy
- Mastery - Outline the framework for performance and wellbeing resilience
- Mindset - Evidence-based strategies for developing growth-mindset and resilience for periods of change, challenge, pressure and uncertainty
- Meaning - How to create meaningful progress by cutting through biases and default patterns of thinking for more creative, adaptive and productive action
- Social Practice: Mindful meals and relationships

12.30 Lunch

13.30 SESSION THREE: STRESS MASTERY

- Mindfulness - the scientific benefits of mindfulness practices for 'stress mastery', resilience, rest and recovery
- Mindfulness - practical, science-based techniques for bringing more mindfulness into our lives and workplace cultures
- Mindful Leadership - key principles for leaders that establish more mindful teams and organisational cultures.
- Psychological Practice: Mindfulness practices for work and life (thorough debriefing and practical suggestions for establishing routines)

15.00 Afternoon Tea Break

15.20 SESSION FOUR: PRACTICE MAKES PROGRESS

- The 'Knowing Better but not Being Better' trap: Don't fall into the trap that this new knowledge will be sufficient for change, it won't. Einstein was right that "Nothing happens until something moves" - and we won't make progress without practice. We will explore how to move beyond cognition to intention and action
- The 'Do as I say, not as I do' leadership trap: Building Leadership commitment. When leaders are committed to stress mastery and energy management, not only do they benefit greatly, their role modelling is a powerful ingredient for team and cultural change.
- Creating a Practical Plan - because Practice Makes Progress. Integrating what we have learned, experienced and practiced into our lives now, and over time. Setting our intention, planning our practice, establishing a routine, evolving through progress
- Mind-Body Practice: Balancing energy and ease to close the masterclass.

THE ESSENTIALS IN CULTIVATING A SUSTAINABLE WORKPLACE WELLBEING CULTURE

DR AARON JARDEN

When it comes to designing, implementing, and embedding Wellbeing Programs that work and thrive, Dr Aaron Jarden from the Wellbeing and Resilience Centre at SAHMRI, Adelaide, is one of the world experts. With his extensive practical knowledge and experience in the field of Wellbeing Science, backed up by cutting-edge theory and research, Aaron will take you through the absolute essentials of setting up a Wellbeing Program that is not only relevant and successful, but which stands the test of time to support a healthier, more positive, and engaged workforce.

Wellbeing is increasingly regarded as one of the keys to stress management, greater resilience, enhanced problem-solving and creative abilities. Research indicates that the links go from improved employee wellbeing to better engagement in the workplace to a more productive organisation. So how does one create a Wellbeing Program to facilitate capitalising on these links?

This masterclass is designed for anyone interested or involved in the development, supply or management of Wellbeing in organisations; large, medium and small, and provides invaluable information for programs at any stage of development. Whether your program is already implemented, or is in the early-stages of design, you'll come away armed with practical, innovative tools, ideas and solutions to helping set up and run your Wellbeing Program to its best potential. The workshop is also experiential within an applied training framework, so you will experience many of these empirically validated tools first hand during the workshop, to get a feel for a successful program first hand.
