11.00 THE MISSING LINK IN WORKPLACE WELLBEING

Hannah McQueen, Founder and Managing Director of enableMe, authorised financial advisor and author

Workplace wellbeing programmes include everything from gym discounts to Fitbit challenges and yoga in the boardroom – but that's only addressing the physical side of the story.

The impact of financial stress on not only individual employee wellbeing, but also on company finances, is something that is often overlooked. Hannah McQueen presents a dynamic talk, full of humour and personal anecdotes, where she will address:

- The growing issue of financial stress and its impact on wellbeing and the workplace
- Why being financially fit – whatever your income – is so important, and how to make it happen
- How employers should tackle this tricky and sometimes taboo topic
- What employers can do to reduce workers' financial stress

11.45 CREATING A SAFE AND RESPECTFUL WORKPLACE FOR ALL

Dion Jensen, International expert in Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), author and corporate trainer

Dion's police and military background, coupled with his extensive experience in leadership and management roles in the corporate space, has equipped him well to help us spot and deal with the ongoing problem of workplace bullying – which, in the worst-case scenario, can lead to people taking their own lives.

Hear him talk about:

- Why bullying is so harmful and what can be done to tackle it
- Positive solutions to address and manage issues, before they escalate
- The options open to management, bystanders, human resources and to those who are bullied or accused of non-inclusive or negative behaviours
- What organisations can do to reduce bullying and create safe, respectful and more productive workplaces

BLYTHE ROWE

ABOUT YOUR FACILITATOR, BLYTHE ROWE

Blythe Rowe, often described as a 'little pocket rocket' is widely recognised for her expertise in 'People, Culture and Performance' as well as her ability to shake things up.

Blythe has worked in Senior Human Resources & Organisational Development roles for over 13 years in global organisations and is the author of the book 'Bullies, Blamers & Bludgers'. She is on a mission to rid workplaces of toxic behaviours, build meaningful relationships and create workplaces worth belonging!

Blythe is as authentic as it gets. Audiences absolutely love her energy, passion and fun that she brings to their event as well as the simple and pragmatic strategies that they can apply!

8.30 Registration and Welcome Coffee

9.00 SESSION ONE: HEALTH AND WELLBEING AT A MACRO AND MICRO LEVEL

Explore some of the potential unproductive behaviours and reveal current statistics on how this impacts health and wellbeing at a macro and micro level. You will learn:

- The 12 potential "people riots" (unproductive behaviours) and their impact on performance and wellbeing
- Why the brain is a control freak & how this impacts behaviour
- Some of the key triggers that might cause team members to engage in unproductive behaviours (& how you could be causing it)
- Why culture does not always eat strategy for breakfast
- The five key questions every employee (especially the cynical ones) needs answered to connect them to the organisation
- The five elements of the Business Connection Model and how they work together to drive connection and engagement

10.30 Morning Coffee Break

10.50 SESSION TWO: CULTURE

We will delve deeper into one of the aspects of the Business Connection Model: CULTURE. Topics explored include:

- What exactly is culture?
- Defining what it means to have a "brain-friendly" workplace
- What the data geeks can teach us about human performance
- How you can trigger a "reward response" in your team to engage them in the right behaviours (including a focus on wellbeing)
- The power of "storytelling" to change behaviours, in order to change the overall culture

Masterclasses will be conducted using a combination of presentation material and group exercises to maximise your learning potential. Please note that the masterclass content will be tailored to participants' individual needs so the length of each session may vary. Refreshments will be provided, including morning and afternoon teas and lunch.

12.30 Lunch

13.30 SESSION THREE: HOW TO DEAL WITH UNPRODUCTIVE BEHAVIOUR

Deep dive into some of the critical factors needed to deal with toxic or unproductive behaviours in the workplace. You will learn:

- Why strong leadership is fundamental if you want to nip unproductive behaviours in the bud
- How the All Blacks have got it right: in terms of dealing or engaging with toxic team members
- How to make workplace values more than just a poster on the wall
- How to identify and address bullying, harassment and non-inclusive behaviour, and how best to approach this
- How to depersonalise those crucial conversations: separating the personal from the professional

15.00 Afternoon Tea Break

15.20 SESSION FOUR: REFLECTIVE ON CURRENT PRACTICES AND BRAINSTORMING DIFFERENT APPROACHES

The final session will help you develop a brain-friendly workplace.

- Reflection: Unpacking some of the rituals that make up your current workplace culture: are they working for you?
- Tips on how to develop a brain-friendly workplace to boost performance: cognitive and wellbeing
- How to embed wellbeing into an existing culture
- Brainstorming some potential new rituals to instil in your workplace to create a brain-friendly workplace, worth belonging

MAXIMISING YOUR WELLNESS INVESTMENT: HOW TO CREATE A STRATEGY THAT BOTH YOUR EMPLOYEES AND YOUR FINANCE MANAGER WILL LOVE

KATRINA WALTON

ABOUT YOUR FACILITATOR, KATRINA WALTON

Katrina Walton is a veritable thought leader in the wellness industry, and has travelled all over the world sharing her invaluable knowledge and experience around implementing and sustaining a results-orientated wellbeing strategy.

With her perfect blend of theory and practice, together with her broad, structured approach to workplace wellbeing, you'll come away armed with a plethora of tools, knowledge and strategies to implement straight away within your organisation to help you create a cost-effective, and positive health-driving wellness strategy.

No matter what your budget, cost-effective wellness delivery is critical to business success and sustainability.

You can create an award-winning wellness strategy, regardless of how large or small the budget, either by expanding on your existing strategy or implementing a new one. Arm yourself with the invaluable tips, resources and strategies you need to be able to deliver a thriving wellness strategy that really engages your staff and helps them to thrive, mentally and physically. Learn how to get results from workplace wellness and achieve your business goals. In fact, research shows that financial performance increases more than 2.5 times when health and wellness is encouraged:

This not-to-be-missed one-day masterclass is designed to appeal to all organisations, no matter how large or small, whose primary objective is to really drive great health and wellbeing among its staff while concurrently meeting or exceeding wellness budget.

8.30 Registration and Welcome Coffee

9.00 SESSION 1: CREATING AND EVOLVING A WELLNESS STRATEGY THAT WORKS

Many organisations offer one-off health checks, chair massages, occasional yoga classes and so on. While the intentions are good, the organisation probably won't see any real or lasting impact to their bottom line.

In this session, you'll find out what you need to consider when planning or revamping your wellness strategy, whether your organisation is large, medium or small. Katrina will outline the need to think strategically about health and wellness in the workplace so that it can be integrated into the very DNA of your organisation to ensure the best possible outcomes for:

- Your organisation's bottom line
- Wellness outcomes for your employees
- A strategy that will stand the test of time
- Walk away with a six step framework for creating a workplace wellness strategy that works

SESSION 2: THE FINANCIAL SIDE OF WELLBEING

While it would be wonderful to have an endless bucket of money to spend on a workplace wellness strategy, the budget is dependent on several factors that can fluctuate wildly over time. This session will provide you with the tools and know-how to make your wellness dollar go further.

- How to create a targeted and cost-effective wellness strategy
- The key implications for large, medium and small organisations looking to create a wellness strategy. What are the challenges for each?
- Our top ten tips for stretching your wellness dollar further
- How to effectively measure and monitor the human and financial success of your wellness program – what is your wellness ROI?

SESSION 3: ENGAGING YOUR STAFF

To derive the benefits from wellness programs, staff must embrace and participate in them.

Consider these questions: Are your programs poorly attended? Are the same 'healthy' employees turning up each time? Is there an element of cynicism or indifference toward the programs? Have you lost touch with what your employees really want? In this session, Katrina will outline practical strategies for addressing the above hurdles to a successful wellness strategy, and for engaging senior management, key stakeholders and employees in your wellness efforts

- How to build a transformational wellness culture
- How to leverage leaders as change agents
- How to engage and inspire your multi-generational, multi-cultural workforce to participate in your organisational wellbeing program – find out the key strategies
- Strategies for overcoming cynicism or indifference towards your program
